

MORNING APPEAL

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 7, 1878

THE CINCHING OF THE BROAD-HORNS!

A Disastrous Defeat to the Bradlerian Contingent!

Yesterday was a grand field day on the Comstock. On one side of the Democratic parade ground were drawn up the Bradlerian hosts, full of the fire of war; on the opposite stood the armed legions of Reynard the Fox. In good time the trumpets sounded forth the charge. The eager warriors sprang to the conflict. We are metaphorical. Too much so. We do not feel competent to maintain it. The subject is not of that airy sort. It was the Mudsilla against the Chivalry; the one termers and two termers against the three termers; it was the man who butchers the lowing herd and hangs their pelts upon the fence of the slaughter-yard, against the man of beaves and sheep and swine. Again we are somewhat figurative. Time and terms demand plain facts. The struggle was between Governor Bradley and ex-Senator L. T. Fox of Gold Hill. The prize was the majority of the Convention which is to name the delegates to the Democratic State Convention. The result is Bradley's signal defeat. He loses thirty-five votes in the State Convention. The loss is a most serious one. It will probably cause his defeat. The hand of Providence is in this. Likewise that of the one termers. Likewise that of the two termers. Fox is at this writing cock of the walk. There is no doubt of a coalition between him and Hagerman to beat the Broadhorns. It begins to look as if they would succeed in doing so. Let us thank God, brethren, and take courage.

LATER—NOT SO MUCH ANTI-BRADLEY HILARITY.

At a later hour in the evening Tump Winston received the following dispatch:

Bradley has carried second and third wards. Think he has the county. Great rejoicing. Will let you know the result in half an hour.

JIM ORNDORFF.

Still Later: Winston received the following about half past 9 o'clock:

First Ward so far fifteen ahead. Second and Third for Bradley. Fourth against him. Bet that he wins. Gold Hill against him.

ORNDORFF.

LATEST.

BROADHORNS ASCENDANT!

A few minutes after 10 o'clock the news came that Bradley had won the day. He carries the convention by 23 to 18.

THE PIONEERS' BLOW OUT.

Says the Chronicle of last evening: From present appearances the celebration of the anniversary of the admission of California into the Union, on next Tuesday evening by the Pacific Coast Pioneers at their hall on B street, will be a grand affair. At a meeting of the Committee on Preparations, held last night, it was reported that Carson City had been very liberal in contributing provisions. The donations from the Pioneers there having been four calves, fourteen pigs and sixteen lambs. The committee have provided 200 pounds of ham, 200 pounds of corned beef, hundreds of pounds of beans and large quantities of pork, besides lighter articles of diet. The literary exercises will be opened with an address by R. H. Taylor, which will be followed by speeches by other members, interspersed with the singing of Pioneer songs. Several well known vocalists have tendered their services, and Miss Felicia Genes will recite Tom Fitch's famous apostrophe to the Pioneer. The Emmet Guard have volunteered their services in furnishing instrumental music for the occasion.

"PANTS" ENTERPRISE.

An enterprising man is sure to find favor with the press. It is because of his untiring energy and intelligent enterprise that Pantlind of the Ormsby House is so popular with the journalists of Western Nevada. The Virginia City Stage, catching the inspiration of "Pant's" enterprise, says: "Pantlind, of the Ormsby House, Carson, is a wide-awake, go-ahead, get-up-and-dust kind of a man. He sees that they will shortly have very lively times in Carson, and has therefore leased the White House, which will be fitted up in grand style and thrown open to the public about the 1st of October. He will then have two of the best hotels in the State, with facilities for accommodating any number of guests. We wish him the success his enterprise merits."

PERSONAL.—Mr. N. K. Masten, formerly cashier of the Nevada Bank of San Francisco, passed through here yesterday, having come in from Bodie on the afternoon stage from that bustling camp. He will soon return this way from the Bay. Dr. A. B. Stout, one of the most famous physicians of San Francisco, also came in from Bodie. He has been looking at some of the ledges there, with the eye of a scientist. Mrs. R. E. Kelly, now of San Francisco, formerly of Carson, came up from the Bay yesterday morning on a visit to her relatives here. Her little son Eddie, who is with her, is grown a splendid little fellow, full of life and spirit and glee.

IN TOWN.—Senator Martin of Empire and Frank McCullough of the Mexican Mill were in the city yesterday.

HITHER AND YON.

Some days ago there was no little hope and hilarity observable in the demeanor of the Hagermanish Democrat. Meantime, there was a self-contained strength and trust in the gods which preside over primary elections, perceivable in the average Bradlerian. As to the stalwart Broadhorns himself, he has maintained his stout habit and his unswerving complacency. His motto seems to be, semel abbas, semper abbas—once a Governor, always a Governor. As if waiting for the news of a battle were the expectant masses of the rank and file. These watched while others fought—the battle raging in the clouds, as at Lookout, as it were. It caused a variety in the general stockish drift; and men forgot their gambles, their losses and their paper gains, for a while. As in the narrative of the Passing of the King,

So all day long the noise of battle rold
Among the mountains by the winter sea.

What was done by these fierce, stirring Demos., is it not written on another place?

Always, my friends, lock the stable door after the horse is stolen—even if it be stolen. Don't let the sour phrasing of an old adage deter you from doing even a post mortem piece of wisdom. There is much virtue in good habits. Also, my brethren in good, preventive laws. If you are in the unvarying habit of locking the stable door you fall in the way of wise precautions unconsciously as it were. Suppose we had a law, even now in vogue, by whose provisions, you and I and Darby and Joan who are in stocks, might be assured beyond any possibility of doubt or evasion that our broker or other custodian of our certificates of ownership in any corporation, mining or otherwise, shouldn't and couldn't convert the same to his own use as collaterals,—aren't you very sure that when the breaks come, as breaks will come to even as honest and well-meaning a man as our unlucky friend who has just had to close his office, we shouldn't be wrecked out of hope and sight and sound? We are all mighty particular about our bankers. Why not be thus careful and exacting with our brokers? This is in no sense a reflection upon Mr. McConnell. We believe him to be a man of as thorough and trustworthy manhood as anybody need be; but the prevalent brokerage system is all too loose. It needs mending and anchoring and reconstructing—by law. Stocks left with a broker for safe keeping and the collection of dividends, should be regarded by statute as so many special deposits—not assets of the broker or agent—but deposits—as much as my horse kept in Farmer Goodacre's pasture is mine and not his—mine after he has failed quite as much as before he met with his reverses.

We are preparing to startle our readers with something amazingly interesting and excitable. It is in the line of a narration—a kind of historical romance, as it were. Meantime, the price per annum to subscribers to the MORNING APPEAL will not be subjected to any variation or shadow of turning. It will continue to remain at the old figures and under the old conditions. Eight dollars per annum, invariably in advance.

IMPORTANT TO GUNNERS.

The following is the list of birds which may be legally killed between the first day of September and the first day of April in each year: Prairie chickens, partridge, pheasant, woodcock, teal, mallard or other ducks, brant, swan, sand-hill crane, yellow hammer, bittern, grouse, quail, wild goose, wood duck, plover, curlew, robin and meadow lark. Between the first day of August and the first day of April of each year, it is lawful to kill sage chickens and snipe, but it is at all times unlawful to either entrap or to injure the eggs or nests of any of the game birds above mentioned. Section 6 of the "Act to preserve wild game" reads as follows: "Every person offending against any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail of the counties in which the said conviction is had, for any term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

THE YELLOW FEVER RELIEF FUND.

The committees appointed to solicit contributions to the yellow fever relief fund report as follows:

Carson City, First Ward—Messrs. Pantlind, Lewis and Rinckel Committee—$392 75, including $91 50, balance in hand of Virginia Relief Committee.

Second Ward—Messrs. Cheney, Swift and Tobriner Committee—$391 80, including $50 received from Vivian Mill.

Empire City—Messrs. Stadtmuller and McCullough Committee—$320 50.

Total amount forwarded, $1,105.

This is very handsome, for both places—especially for Empire.

FIREMEN'S MEETING.—The firemen of the various Carson companies will meet at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at the Curry Engine House for the purpose of discussing the proposition of forming a regular Fire Department with Chief Engineer, assistants, etc. We are too much of an outsider to be entitled to any voice; but we have a right to hope, and we do hope, that these self-sacrificing citizens may do the wisest thing suggested and submit themselves to organization and discipline.

MINERS' UNION PICNIC.

To-day at Uncle Tread's Pleasure Grounds will be held the grand picnic of the season—the picnic of the Miners' Unions of Virginia City and Gold Hill. Our little city will be full of life and gaiety; and the participants will have such a time as one remembers for a lifetime. The Chronicle of last evening referring to this merry-making says: "The regular annual Miners' Union Picnic will take place to-morrow at Treadway's Ranch, Carson. Of course this is to be the picnic of the season—a picnic which will completely dwarf all other similar affairs which have gone before. Times are flush, stocks are up, and there is a general feeling of jubilation all along the lode. The result should be to swell the attendance at the Miners' Union picnic beyond all previous proportions. The preparations for the comfort of the guests, and the preservation of good order, have been made very extensive, and the plans for a good time will be thoroughly carried out. The prizes to be contested for are very costly and sufficiently numerous to allow everybody to bring back a trophy. The train will leave the depot at 8 o'clock in the morning, sharp."

HANDSOME—ALL ROUND.—The Monarch Saloon, Mike Gregovich's place, is a very handsome and very attractive resort. Nothing could be neater or handsomer than the beautiful bar with its bright glasses and silver ware. Mike has a small billiard table in the part of his saloon devoted to that game, which is one of the most superb pieces of that kind of furniture we have ever seen. Such a place, thus furnished, deserves to be liberally patronized, as this saloon is, we are glad to say.

HALF-MILE RACE.—There is to be a half-mile race to-day at the Agricultural Society's track between two mares, "Flora" and "Gipsy," for a purse of $1,000—the winner to own both horses. The match excites much interest and will be largely attended.

MUSIC AT BOWERS' MANSION.—The National Guard Band will accompany the excursion train on Sunday next. During the day they will enliven the scene at Bowers' Mansion with delightful instrumental music.
